MTN Data Plans Overview

This document describes the MTN Nigeria data plans (Access data bundles), organised by validity period: daily, 2-day, weekly, 2-week, monthly, 2 to 3 month, and yearly plans. All prices are in Nigerian naira (written as N, for example N800 means 800 naira).

Data plans are designed to give access to the internet through a data-enabled device.

Complimentary voice minutes: some plans include add-on voice minutes. The voice rate is 13 kobo per second (N7.8 per minute).

Data depletion: the cost per MB (N per MB) of each plan is shown on every plan entry below.

Product Terms and Conditions

Components of access bundles

[Terms: Components of access bundles] The YouTube Night Streaming Allowance is a component of a bundle that can be used for streaming content on YouTube only between 12AM and 5AM daily.

[Terms: Components of access bundles] The YouTube Time-base Streaming Allowance (shown as YouTube Day) is different from the YouTube Night allowance. It can be used for streaming all day, at any time within the stipulated time on YouTube.

[Terms: Components of access bundles] Some of the bundles also include allocated call minutes (complimentary voice minutes).

Data bundle sharing

[Terms: Data bundle sharing] Customers who buy any of the Access data bundles can share their active data balance with up to 5 registered beneficiaries using the Family Share functionality.

[Terms: Data bundle sharing] Customers must have a minimum data balance of 100MB to be able to allocate data to the registered beneficiaries. Customers can add and remove beneficiaries and set a data usage limit for each beneficiary.

[Terms: Data bundle sharing] Customers with an active data subscription can also transfer data from their main data allowance in these volumes: 100MB, 200MB, 500MB, 1GB, 2GB, 3GB and 5GB. The maximum transferable volume of data per day is 5GB, for a maximum of 10 transactions per month.

[Terms: Data bundle sharing] Transferred data is valid for 7 days for transfers of 100MB to 2GB, and for 14 days for transfers of 3GB and 5GB.

[Terms: Data bundle sharing] Only 20% of a 70GB bundle and above is transferrable.

[Terms: Data bundle sharing] Customers can also gift their loved ones Access bundles, or request data from their friends.

Rollover rule

[Terms: Rollover rule] Unused main data balance is ONLY rolled over if the customer buys another data plan from the same category as the current bundle within the stipulated grace period.
